HOLLAND, Mich. September 14, 2018—The Courtyard by Marriott Hotel in downtown Holland has earned the Inspectors Best Housekeeping Award from the American Automobile Association (AAA).

The award goes to the top 25 percent of all hotels, based on cleanliness and condition. It is one of numerous awards earned by the Courtyard Hotel and other hotels owned and operated by the West Michigan-based Suburban Inns.

“This is another recognition that affirms the hard work that this team puts in to uphold Suburban Inns’ high standards of cleanliness,” said Grant Hirst, General Manager of the Courtyard by Marriott in Holland. “Our housekeeping staff deserve to be recognized for what they do to ensure all of our guests enjoy their stay.”
